

Year 5 homework due in 11th March

Draw out your name using a range of straight lines to create different angles.

Then using a protractor measure all the acute and obtuse angles. If you are feeling brave calculate the reflex angles by measuring the internal angle and subtracting from 360.

If you do not have a protractor please come and see me.